

guildofststephen.org

"There is no need for lots of words, more important are your actions, your closeness, your desire to serve."

"Young people - and everyone else for that matter - need friends who can give a good example, who are ready to act without expecting anything in return."